Women's Bible Study 2007/08

1. Pray: ask God to open your mind, soul and spirit to His teaching through His Word

2. Think: the questions are designed to expand your knowledge of God and His Word

3. Begin: using only your Bible, answer the questions without other outside sources

Lesson Twenty Seven—The Law & the Land: Joshua 11–12
April 16, 2008

1. What did the king of Hazor hear about Joshua and the armies of Israel as referenced in Joshua 11:1?

2. List all the tribes and kings to whom the king of Hazor sent word to fight against Israel.

3. How are these troops described in terms of their power and numbers according to Joshua 11:4–5?

4. What is the Lord's promise to Joshua in 11:6?

5. a) What enemies are in your life?

   b) How is the Lord encouraging you?

6. What was Joshua's response to these armies in 11:7–9? Did he obey completely? Back up with Scripture.

7. Joshua 11:7–15 describes war between the Israelites and the people living in the Promised Land.
   a) Why do you think Joshua and his armies put everyone to death by the sword?

   b) How does this affect your view of God?

8. a) What chain of command do you see in Joshua 11:15?

   b) Authority was exceedingly important in the spiritual life and in the survival of the Israelites. Do you think it is as important today? Why or why not, and in what ways?

9. Was taking the Promised Land a quick and easy conquest based on Joshua 11:16–23? Prove your answer from the passage.

10. How patient are you with the spiritual conquests of your life? Explain your answer with examples.

11. Name the kings the Israelites defeated on the east side of the Jordan in Joshua 12:1–4.

12. a) According to Joshua 12:6, which tribes settled on the east of the Jordan?

b) Who conquered that land? (Read Numbers 32:1–4; 16–33 for background.)

13. How many kings did Joshua and the Israelites conquer on the west side of the Jordan based on Joshua 12:7-24?

Going Deeper:

14. a) Describe Joshua's character and his relationship to the Lord as seen from these two chapters.

b) Describe in detail one way that you would like to be more like Joshua.

c) Who would benefit from this growth in your life?
