|------|----------------|-------------------|
| I. | GOOD REACTIONS | I Samuel 25:1-22 |
| II. | GOOD JUDGMENT | I Samuel 25:23-33 |
| III. | GOOD TIMING | I Samuel 25:34-43 |

Truth #1: Keeping harmony in strained relationships often comes at great cost to me.

Truth #2: Good judgment surfaces the more I focus on God (& His ways) than on my rights or feelings.

Truth #3: Sometimes the wisest response is a delayed but truth filled response.

Notes:

Aiming for a right relationship with God when all the 'wrong situations' are in my life is the best guide toward good judgment.
