

1. Pray: ask God to open your mind, soul and spirit to His teaching through His Word
2. Think: the questions are designed to expand your knowledge of God and His Word
3. Begin: using only your Bible, answer the questions without other outside sources

Lesson Eleven—The Law & the Land: Exodus 20:1–3

November 28, 2007

1. a) To whom were these commands given? Re-read chapter 19 to help with your answer.
 - b) Who is the speaker of these commands?
2. How does God identify Himself in verse 2?
3. Reflect upon who God is to you.
 - a) Is He your God and how do you know this?
 - b) Name God and how do you know this name? Do you believe this (You may use all of Scripture to help with your answer)?
 - c) From your own history, from what has God brought you out?

4. a) How do you identify your God to other people?

b) Do you name your God to others or do you stay vague about God's names?

c) Why do you do this?
5. What is the first command God gives?
6. Explain in your own words what you think this command is demanding of you.
7. Name as many other gods you know to exist in our world today.

Going Deeper:

8. a) What other gods do you have before God?

b) What are you going to do about this because of this first command?

c) What prayer would you have your group pray for you today?

9. Share why you think God has the right to command/demand this from people.

10. From just these three verses, state what characteristics you learn about God and what characteristics you learn about man.
