Women's Bible Study 2007/08

- 1. Pray: ask God to open your mind, soul and spirit to His teaching through His Word
- 2. Think: the questions are designed to expand your knowledge of God and His Word
- 3. Begin: using only your Bible, answer the questions without other outside sources

Lesson Twenty—The Law & the Land: Overview of Joshua February 20, 2008

Review of Exodus:

Looking back over the life of	Moses, the Exodus,	and the giving of the	law, complete the following	ıg:

1. a) Name a principle, a lesson, or a particular verse that impacted you and state why. b) Name several attributes of God that were demonstrated in Exodus and include a short description of the passage or verses. c) Name the good qualities that God developed in Moses that you would like Him to develop in you. d) What are some bad qualities in Moses that you identify with? What will you do to change them? 2. Joshua is introduced several times in the book of Exodus. Describe the things that you see from the following passages that qualify him as a leader: a) Exodus 17:8-15

	b)	Exodus 24:12–18; 32:15–19; 33:7–11
_e v 3.		us: e book of Leviticus is named after what Israelite tribe? What was their role and what do you think is mary theme of this book? (For help see Leviticus II:44–45.)
OSI	hua	ers:  is mentioned several times in the book of Numbers. Read Numbers, chapter 13 and answer the following:
т.		What was Joshua's other name and who changed it?  Why do you think it was changed and do you know of any other people in the Bible whose names were changed?
	c)	Who went to explore Canaan? How long were they gone, and what did Moses have them look for
	d)	Describe what they reported back to Moses, Aaron, and the Israelites about the land.

a

Read I	Numbers chapter 14 and answer the following:
5. a)	Who stood out from the rest of the explorers and why?
b)	What was God's response to the others? What was His judgment on them, and do you think it was fair? Why or why not?
c)	Who could enter the Promised Land and when?
d)	From verses 14:39–44, how did the Israelites respond to God's judgment? What happened?
e)	Have you ever done this? What happened to you?
	Numbers 27:12–23 and answer the following: id Moses ever get to enter the Promised Land? Why or why not? Do you think that God was fair in this?
7. W	/ho would succeed Moses to lead the people and who chose him?

8.		hat key qualities do you see from this passage and from previous passages that qualify Joshua for dership? Which do you think is the most important and why?
Go	oing	Deeper:
Read Deuteronomy 1:38; 3:28; 31:1—8 and answer the following:
9.	a)	What common exhortations do you see as God prepares Joshua to replace Moses?
	b)	Why do you think these were given?
	c)	What challenges might lie ahead?
10.	W	hat challenges lie ahead for you? How will you use these verses in the battles you face?			