

Lesson 12

January 18, 2012

- I. RESUMÉ for God's service I Timothy 1:12–14
- II. RESCUER for worst sinner I Timothy 1:15–17
- III. RESUME the good fight I Timothy 1:18–20

Truth #1: Whomever I think is the least likely candidate to know Jesus or be in His service just might be God's next Paul or Paulina.

Truth #2: The more it dawns on me what a "worst sinner" I am and what a Wondrous Savior He is, the more I'll experience a doxology, praise-filled life.

Truth #3: To fight the good fight, I need to be anchored to sound doctrine and kindle a sound conscience.

Helmet Thinking #1: He'll be my Strength.

Helmet Thinking #2: He's still transforming me.

Helmet Thinking #3: Mature saints still wrestle with sin.

Helmet Thinking #4: Of course life's hard; I'm in a spiritual battle.

Helmet Thinking #5: Don't quit; fight the good fight.

Notes:

I'll get disappointed with God if I think life is a playground instead of what it really is . . . a battleground.
