

Foster City Campus – January 7, 2018

All Power and Authority - Mark Mitchell

Matthew 8:1-22

1. What are some of the common notions about power and authority today?
2. What was Matthew saying about Jesus' authority by organizing his gospel around five blocks of teaching?
3. Look at the three healing stories in vv. 1-17. How are these three encounters similar? How are they different?
4. Who do you identify with more: the leper, the centurion, or Peter's mother-in-law? Explain.
5. How does the Isaiah quote in v. 17 provide greater insight into the power and authority of Jesus?
6. Why do you think Matthew includes the stories of two would-be disciples right after these three healing stories?
7. Are you more prone to be like the first guy ("I will follow you wherever you go") or the second guy ("let me first bury my father")?
8. Share one step you might take to move forward in your discipleship.

South Campus - January 7, 2018

All Power and Authority - Mark Mitchell - Video
Matthew 8:1-22

1. What are some of the common notions about power and authority today?
2. What was Matthew saying about Jesus' authority by organizing his gospel around five blocks of teaching?
3. Look at the three healing stories in vv. 1-17. How are these three encounters similar? How are they different?
4. Who do you identify with more: the leper, the centurion, or Peter's mother-in-law? Explain.
5. How does the Isaiah quote in v. 17 provide greater insight into the power and authority of Jesus?
6. Why do you think Matthew includes the stories of two would-be disciples right after these three healing stories?
7. Are you more prone to be like the first guy ("I will follow you wherever you go") or the second guy ("let me first bury my father")?
8. Share one step you might take to move forward in your discipleship.