

Where's The Fruit - Mark Mitchell
Matthew 21: 18-46

1. Jesus has just begun the last week of his earthly life in Jerusalem. In what way are his actions with the fig tree symbolic?
2. What does fruit represent? What are some ways as Christ followers today might there be lots of leaves but no fruit?
3. Why did the religious leaders question Jesus' authority? What did Jesus hope to accomplish by asking them about John's baptism? What does their response reveal about them?
4. What is Jesus teaching in the parable of the two sons? Why is it that "tax collectors and prostitutes" are more responsive than the religious leaders? In what ways is that true today?
5. What does the parable of the wicked vine-growers reveal about Israel? About God? About Jesus?
6. Look up Psalm 118:22-24. What does this quote reveal about Jesus and our response to him?
7. In v. 43 Jesus says, "Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit." Who will the kingdom be taken from? Who will he give it to?
8. How did God speak to you through this message?

Where's The Fruit - Mark Mitchell
Matthew 21: 18-46

1. Jesus has just begun the last week of his earthly life in Jerusalem. In what way are his actions with the fig tree symbolic?
2. What does fruit represent? What are some ways as Christ followers today might there be lots of leaves but no fruit?
3. Why did the religious leaders question Jesus' authority? What did Jesus hope to accomplish by asking them about John's baptism? What does their response reveal about them?
4. What is Jesus teaching in the parable of the two sons? Why is it that "tax collectors and prostitutes" are more responsive than the religious leaders? In what ways is that true today?
5. What does the parable of the wicked vine-growers reveal about Israel? About God? About Jesus?
6. Look up Psalm 118:22-24. What does this quote reveal about Jesus and our response to him?
7. In v. 43 Jesus says, "Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit." Who will the kingdom be taken from? Who will he give it to?
8. How did God speak to you through this message?