

Foster City Campus

Dangerous Worship - Mark Mitchell

Isaiah 6: 1-8

1. How has worshipping the wrong person or object diminished you and left you wanting?
2. How has God used hardship, change or crisis to draw you into His presence? What is God doing to draw you into worship?
3. Read vv. 1-4. What impresses you about Isaiah's vision of God? How do you take the time to focus on the character of God? How are the eyes of your heart being opened to grow in the knowledge of God?
4. Read v. 5. Why is confession and grieving one's own sin such a powerful and appropriate response to the presence of God? How have you come to grips with your unclean lips and your unclean heart?
5. Read vv. 6-7. What does God's cleansing power tell us about God's grace? How does the bread and wine of communion remind you that your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for?
6. Read v. 8. What does it mean to you today to respond to, "Whom shall I send?" How does our worship response connect to the idea of God's calling to send us?
7. Share with your group how they can pray for you to get back to the heart of worship revealed in Isaiah 6?

South Campus

Dangerous Worship - Mark Mitchell

Isaiah 6: 1-8

1. How has worshipping the wrong person or object diminished you and left you wanting?
2. How has God used hardship, change or crisis to draw you into His presence? What is God doing to draw you into worship?
3. Read vv. 1-4. What impresses you about Isaiah's vision of God? How do you take the time to focus on the character of God? How are the eyes of your heart being opened to grow in the knowledge of God?
4. Read v. 5. Why is confession and grieving one's own sin such a powerful and appropriate response to the presence of God? How have you come to grips with your unclean lips and your unclean heart?
5. Read vv. 6-7. What does God's cleansing power tell us about God's grace? How does the bread and wine of communion remind you that your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for?
6. Read v. 8. What does it mean to you today to respond to, "Whom shall I send?" How does our worship response connect to the idea of God's calling to send us?
7. Share with your group how they can pray for you to get back to the heart of worship revealed in Isaiah 6?