Genesis 16:1-16

1. What are some ways you have “second-guessed” God, as Sarai did? Why do you think you/we do this?
2. How does waiting (or not waiting) on the Lord reveal your heart? Might our choices show who we’re more interested in pleasing and trusting God or ourselves/our goals? How so?
3. Mark mentioned that when we’re waiting on God and he doesn’t seem to care or be attentive to our prayers, that’s when we’re most vulnerable to taking things into our own hands. What happened when Sarai and Abram did exactly that and ran ahead of God? (vv.1-3)
