Genesis 25:1-8

1. As we close our series on Abraham, Kevin asked us to reflect on how the way in which we live affects our death (or legacy). Was this a helpful point of view for you? Why or why not?
2. One of the first markers of a successful life lived and died Kevin gave was “fruitfulness”, looking at Galatians 5:22-25 what does that look like? And how does one live a fruitful life?
3. The second marker mentioned was “faithfulness”, thinking in terms of allegiances, do your actions reflect the allegiance we claim to have with Christ?

4. Along with this, Kevin reminded us of Prov. 4:23 and the idea of “guarding our hearts”. What are some practical ways to do this in our modern times?
  - a. How might this look different from person to person?

5. The last marker was “fullness”, what are some ways we consider someone to have lived a full life in our culture?
  - a. How might Psalm 92:12 and the rest of Scripture reframe that for us as believers?
