

LET'S GO!

LESSON 18: SINGING IN PRISON – ACTS 16:25-40

Share the journey... Parent/Child Activity

Today to kids learned that they can trust God even when things look hard. They don't need to worry or be afraid. They can be brave because God is with them.

During the week take some time to pray and sing with your kids. Remind them of the story of Paul and Silas singing in prison. Encourage your kids to be joyful and brave because God is with them wherever they go.

Pray with your kids. Encourage them to be joyful and brave.

Along the way...

LEARN GOD'S WORD

Therefore, my friends, I want you to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you.

- ACTS 13.38

TALK TO GOD

Dear God, Thank you that I can trust you even when things look hard. Help me to not worry or be afraid. Help me to be brave and do what you ask. AMEN be joyful... be encouraged... be brave

I wonder...

Introduction

I wonder why God let Paul and Silas get thrown into prison...

(Let the kids share their thoughts and ideas. Share some of your own, as well)

Where to...

Story

Read SINGING IN PRISON from The Complete Illustrated Children's Bible, Harvest House Publishers (page 574). Or tell the story of Peter and Silas in Prison from Acts 16:25-40.

Get packed...

Activity

Sit in a circle with the kids. Sing some of your favorite Jesus songs. Take some time to pray. Let the kids have a turn to pray if they would like to. Pray for the kids and remind them that they can trust God.

Let's go!

Application

God had a great plan for Paul and Silas even though it included being thrown into prison. Paul and Silas trusted God. They prayed and sang in jail instead of being worried and afraid. God used Paul and Silas to tell the jailer the good news about Jesus. The jailer and all his family believed in Jesus.

We can trust God even when things seem hard.
