

Ekklesia: An Alternative Community

Kevin Sneed

1. As Kevin began, he presented the idea that we are living in a post-Christian setting today. What are some thoughts that come to mind when you think about this idea?
2. Of the three incoherent hopes that Kevin listed, (Expressive individualism, Consumerism, Politics) which do you see yourself struggling with the most?
3. On the other hand, Kevin shared from Isaiah 43 that our hope is in God alone. What should it look like if we truly do have a hope in God alone? More specifically, how should the church be different than the world around it?

4. Next we moved to Isaiah 65:17–22 and briefly discussed how our hope is also rooted in God restoring all things to as they should be. How does this give you hope today?

5. When you think of how the Church should ideally be hoping in God alone, and then look at the Church as we really are, how close do you think we are to that? How can we get closer?
