

Galatians 2:1–10
October 17, 2021
Kevin Sneed

1. One of the core problems for the Galatians seems to be their lack of a deep understanding of the gospel, how do we keep ourselves familiar with the gospel of Christ?
2. Along with this, Kevin talked about how the gospel began a new age, meaning Christians live both now in the “present evil age” and the “age to come.” What are some ways this shows itself in our lives?
3. We also heard about how despite our Heavenly citizenship, the gospel does not erase cultural and ethnic identities. How do we then maintain unity despite these differences?

4. Finally, Kevin ended his message asking several good questions.

Look through these and pick one or two to answer:

- a. When people look at your life do they see a life marked by the gospel of grace?
- b. Do they see the freedom that you have stepped into because of the gospel in your life?
- c. Do they see a commitment to unity that seeks to honor the unique particularities that define this multi-ethnic community of God?
- d. Do they see your life as a testimony of the transformative power of the gospel to reorient yourself around the age to come?
