

Galatians 2:11–21 October 24, 2021 Kevin Sneed

1. Kevin opened his sermon today by posing that Christians are tasked with understanding the Gospel, and then contextualizing it for their communities. What are some things you think we should be aware of when bringing the Gospel to the world today?

2. Galatians 2:11 opens with Peter being confronted by Paul over his regressing to pre-Gospel behaviors. Why do you think Peter did this?
a. Why is this so offensive to not only Paul, but the Gospel itself?

3. It	f this sin of "Ethnocentrism" was able to creep into Peter, what does
t	hat reveal about our struggles with it? What are some ways we may
S	see it in the Church today?

- 4. How do we then maintain Church unity through the Gospel despite these struggles?
 - a. (Remember what Kevin left us off with, "Listen, Learn, Lament, Love)
