

Galatians 4:12-5:1
November 21, 2021
Kevin Sneed

1. What does “freedom” mean to you when you think about it?
 - a. How might the Biblical definition of freedom be different from your own?

2. How are you at receiving confrontation? How are you at humbly confronting others?

3. Was there anything strange or confusing in this passage that Kevin was able to help you understand? Anything you still would like to further understand?

4. What does it mean to be a “child of promise” (v.28)?

5. Is there anything you still feel enslaved or tied to? How might the biblical definition of “freedom,” and the gospel set you free from that thing?
