

Galatians 3:15–25

November 7, 2021

Kevin Sneed

1. Have you ever said or thought of the phrase “You do you?” If so, do you think this is a healthy sentiment to hold onto?
2. What are some questions Paul is trying to answer about the Law in Galatians 3?
3. Kevin mentioned that there were two aspects to the law being created, one to contain sin’s effects, and one to name sin. What are some reasons for these two aspects?

4. What does it mean to be 'clothed with Christ' (v.27)?

5. Re-read v.26-29. As you read it, take note of sections that stick out to you. What are some modern implications of this passage? How is this freedom different from worldly attempts at these freedoms?