Mark 12:1-12

1. What are you steward of in your own life?
2. As we've been learning Mark touches on the subject of authority, why do you think this is an important topic?
3. Kevin explained that parables were a way to depict something and reveal what's going on underneath the surface. What stood out to you in this Parable of The Tenants (Mark 12:11)?
4. How can you be a better steward of what God has given you?
5. Kevin shared a statement, "do the next right thing," what does that mean to you?
6. Jesus quoted Psalm 118:22-23, "The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes." What was Jesus prophesying to the Sandhedrin?
7. Kevin prompted us to consider, "what is your cornerstone?" What came to mind for you?
8. How can this group support you in your answer, and guide you towards prioritizing Jesus Christ as your personal cornerstone?
