Dan Reid

Mark 12:18-27

1. How did the three questions Dan asked in the beginning of his sermon resonate with you, or what did it bring up about life after death?:
  - “What will life be like when we get there?”
  - “What will we be like when we get there?”
  - “What will our relationships be with one another?”
2. The Sadducees were a religious party that didn’t believe there was a resurrection from the dead, and were trying to trap Jesus. What questions, thoughts, or concerns do you personally have about the resurrection?
3. How can we monitor our intentions when we communicate with someone who has opposing beliefs to us?
4. Jesus said, “For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.” Mark 12:25. How does this truth impact the way you view marriage and or angels?
5. How does knowing that “Christ will reunite us to Himself,” as Dan shared, give you hope and offer perspective in this life?
6. How can this group be praying for you with any questions, concerns, or doubts that may arise about the resurrection/your own resurrection?
7. What does, “He is not the God of the dead, but of the living” (Mark 12:27a) mean to you?
