Sandy Hughes

Mark 14:43-52

1. Sandy explained in her sermon how Christ must have felt alone, hurt, and betrayed, as Judas handed him over to be arrested. Have you ever felt alone, hurt, betrayed? If so, what happened and how did you handle it?
2. How can we, as followers of Christ, respond to the painful emotions of being alone, hurt, and betrayed in a God-honoring and glorifying way?
3. It was mentioned that, "Betrayal is a deep wound to the soul." If this has happened to you, do you think you've healed from it, and if not, how can you?
4. Sandy also quoted Proverbs 27:6, "Wounds from a friend can be trusted, but an enemy multiplies kisses." What does this mean to you? And how have you experienced this in your own life?
5. Jesus tells His disciples in the garden of Gethsemane, "Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." Mark 14:38. How does this translate to your own life?
6. The big idea from the sermon was, "Jesus stands alone, so we don't have to." How does this truth comfort or challenge you?

7. It was mentioned in the sermon to, “watch for what God is doing; those glimmers of hope.” What “glimmers of hope” have you seen the Lord provide for you recently?
